

Questions for Matthew 6:25-34

1. What does Jesus mean by not taking thought of your life? Does that mean that we aren't to think about it at all or make provisions for our survival? (Verse 25)

2. What can we learn and use in our Christian lives from the birds and the flowers of the field? (Verses 26-30)

3. Should we take these verses to mean that the only way to truly seek after God is through a minimalist lifestyle? (Verses 31-32)

4. How does God provide for us the necessities of life? (Verses 30-32)

5. What is the number one priority for mankind to pursue and why should it take precedence over everything else, including our own personal well-being?
(Verse 32)

6. How are we supposed to overcome the anxieties of life? (Verse 34)