

Questions for the Introduction of 1 John

1. Who wrote the epistle of 1 John? What are the internal and external evidence that John is the author?

2. When was 1 John written? What was happening, historically speaking, that might've prompted the book to be written?

3. Who might be the intended audience of 1 John? Are there any connections from this book and the gospel of John?

4. What are some of the main themes and messages of 1 John? What are some key verses that show them?

5. What are some of the theological or historical controversies that have come from the book of 1 John?

6. Give a broad overview/outline of the book.