

Questions for Joshua Introduction

1. Joshua begins the section of the Old Testament known as the historical books. What is the purpose of these narratives and how do they fit with the rest of the Old Testament?

2. What happened at the end of Deuteronomy and how does it transition into the beginning of Joshua?

3. Who wrote Joshua? What was the author's purpose in writing it?

4. What are the main theological themes in Joshua? In other words, in addition to providing historical information, what lessons does the book teach?

5. What are some of the controversies/criticisms surrounding Joshua?

6. Give a broad overview/outline of Joshua.